

European Prize of the Villa Lessing 2024

Invitation to apply:

The Villa Lessing – Liberal Foundation Saar is the Liberal Foundation of the Saarland. The aim of the foundation is the promotion of democratic and civil education, the promotion of science, research and culture on a liberal basis, as well as the furthering of international communication and European unification. Residence of the foundation is the Villa Lessing in Saarbrücken.

We hereby invite you to compete for the "European Prize of the Villa Lessing 2024".

Students from the business section and law section of the Europa-Institut, Saarland University whose master thesis deals with the development of economics and law in Europe, can apply. The thesis should deal with

- the strengthening of the liberty and competition in Europe,
- European integration on a liberal basis,
- the strengthening of the European civil society and the position of the citizen during the European unification,
- the strengthening of the development of the European economy on a liberal basis.

The up to three awards have a value of 1.500 Euro respectively.

You can apply until the 13. December 2024 in written and electronic form under the following address:

For the law section:

Frau Julia Legleitner LL.M.
Geschäftsführerin
Europa-Institut/LL.M.
Universität des Saarlandes
Postfach 15 11 50
D-66041 Saarbrücken
E-Mail: llm@europainstitut.de

For the business section:

Frau Julia Senni, M.A.
Geschäftsführerin
Europa-Institut/MBA
Universität des Saarlandes
Postfach 15 11 50
D-66041 Saarbrücken
E-Mail: j.senni@mba-europe.de

Your application should include the following documents in written and in electronic form:

- a CV with photo,
- your scientific work,
- an abstract of your work (not more than 250 words).

Best of luck!

Hermann Simon
Manager